

Animal Adoption

Fallen in love with one of the animals we have resident with us at The Scottish Deer Centre? Then here is your chance to adopt your favourite animal species and play your part in caring for them! Whether you choose the majestic Wapiti or Red Deer, the Grey Wolves long since extinct in Scotland, or the Pere David's Deer, which have the longest conservation history of any large mammal, you will be making a lasting contribution to their existence on our planet and the conservation work involved!

What Animals Can I Adopt?

You can choose any of the animals at The Scottish Deer Centre, all of which are listed below:

Axis Deer	Hog Deer	Scottish Wildcat
Bactrian Deer	Muntjac Deer	Short Clawed Otters
Barasingha Deer	Pere David's Deer	Sika Deer
Chinese Water Deer	Red Deer	Eurasian Elk (Moose)
Fallow Deer	Red Fox	Wapiti
Grey Wolves	Reindeer	White Lipped Deer
Northern Lynx	Brown Bears

How Do I Adopt An Animal?

We have three different packages available for animal adoption. You can choose either the Bronze, Silver, or Gold adoption. The details of each package are listed on the following page.

Once you have chosen the package for you, fill in the attached application form and return it to us together with a cheque or postal order, made payable to 'The Scottish Deer Centre', or alternatively payment can be made by visiting us in person at the Centre.
